Those cobblestones were covered in a blanket of white for a few weeks and the students walked awkwardly and slow in order not to slip. One could see plenty of color on campus by noticing the gay wool scarves and gloves. Girls, those raccoon collars came in handy, didn't they?

The snack bar offered everything from hot chocolate to potato chips and the students' hunger and thirst was quenched on the spot. Student helpers were always on hand, too.

Having a new rotunda this year gave the students a great place to relax over a coke between classes, and served as a meeting place for groups at night. The new chairs were comfortable for the “long-play” bridge participants, and the snack bar offered a retreat for the hungry loafer.

Give a cheer for old RPI . . . we're the best of all the rest!

Cheerleaders were eager to urge the crowd into excitement at all the basketball games.

Sock feet was the popular adornment at most RPI hops. It was a comfortable way to enjoy dancing in the gym, and the idea went over tremendously.

Man, this group is way out! They're performing in the Senior production of "New Forms." The whole theme surrounded the "beat" generation and gave the audience a glimpse of cellar life.

Each day one can observe the students of RPI busily hurrying around the campus. They pause to smile and say a friendly hello, then scurry on to their respective classes.

Being a professional school, the students are preparing themselves for a particular place in life. They attend classes which are designed especially to place them, well-prepared, in a highly technical atmosphere that dominates today's world. Also, they learn to live with others and experience problems and happy moments that help them adjust to life on their own.

FACULTY

THE PROVOST

DR. GEORGE J. OLIVER

Dr. George J. Oliver, a veteran of thirteen years at the College of William and Mary as Co-ordinator of Branch Activities and Director of Extension Service, took office as Provost of Richmond Professional Institute July 1, 1959. He was formally installed this year as top Administrator of R.P.I. Dr. Oliver has performed his new duties as Provost with sincerity, loyalty and the drive to push ahead. He has guided R.P.I. this year with "a plan of expansion and service that would strengthen Community-school relationships."

DEAN OF STUDENTS

WILLIAM R. O'CONNELL, JR.

Mr. William R. O'Connell, Jr., is known to all R.P.I. students, through his work as Dean of Students and by the friendly atmosphere of his office, which is always open for those who need help with their problems. Mr. O'Connell, who was Dean of Men last year, was appointed by the Provost to serve as Dean of Students this year. His appointment was confirmed by the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary on January 9 of this year. Dean O'Connell has shown the R.P.I. campus that an understanding attitude and a warm smile will greet them when they enter his office, and in return the students respect and admire him.

DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS

CURTIS G. KEESEE, JR.

DEAN OF WOMEN

JANE B. GLADDING

Mrs. Jane B. Gladding assumed the duties of the Dean of Women at R.P.I. this year. Mrs. Gladding has been a teacher at R.P.I. for the last twelve years and has served on the Discipline Committee of the school for several years previous to her new appointment this year. Since Mrs. Gladding accepted the duties of Dean of Women, she has worked closely with the Women's Inter-Dormitory Council and the girls in the dormitories. She has become well known throughout the campus and has done an excellent job regarding her new position.

This year's edition of the Green Devil basketball team was made up of mostly freshmen and sophomores. Because of this, they lacked the necessary experience to compete on the same level with many of the stronger teams in the "Little Eight."

The season ended with the record reading eight wins and fifteen losses. With a few breaks this record might have been reversed.

Captain Gene Bourne, one of the few veterans on the squad, was the consistent leader of the team. Doug Loughridge and Monk Vaughan also contributed outstanding play throughout the season.

Two players will be lost to graduation, Tom Davies and Bill Parker, an outstanding rebounder throughout four years of play. The remainder of the team will return with a year's experience to give Coach Allen a much stronger entry in next year's "Little Eight" race.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Joan Harris, Barbara Wilkie, Gayle Smith, Sue Plennmons, Carolyn Williams, Margaret Boxley, Carolyn Hodges, Katherine Bulger, Myrtle Crowe, Suzanne LeGore, Joan Moody

The Devilettes, under the commendable coaching of Coach Nancy Alexander, finished their fourteen-game schedule with a nine-won/five-lost record, producing R.P.I.'s best girls' basketball team in the past three years. Barbara Wilkie, who was selected by team members for the Edward Bigger Most Valuable Player trophy, was also team co-captain, along with Katherine Bulger, last year's award winner. The girls are very proud of their excellent record and are looking forward to an even better season next year.

As this book went to press, baseball season was still in progress, so the records are incomplete. Up to this point in the season, the Green Devils had won four and lost five, the last three victories being in a row.

Highlight of the young season was a victory over previously unbeaten Randolph-Macon, followed a week later with a second victory over the same team. Both wins were earned by Hunter Talbott, mainstay of the R.P.I. pitching corps.

Joe MacNamee, captain of the team, leads the team in the field and keeps everyone hustling. Marv Russell, playing in his first year, is leading the team at bat.

If play can continue as it has, a winning year is in sight.

CHEERLEADERS

With high spirits all through the season, the R.P.I. Cheerleaders supported their Green Devils with much enthusiasm. Now and then, getting a bit of noise was rather hectic, but most of the time their cheers echoed throughout the building. The cheerleaders would not be complete without their mascot, the Green Devil, who helped lead cheering at every game.

The game of tennis is a game that calls for speed and skill, each victory depending upon experience and knack. That's what this year's tennis team has. The girls play a rough schedule, but play every game animatedly. They defeated Bridgewater College, winning every match, to hand them their worse defeat of the year. They are hopeful of a successful spring season.

ORGANIZATIONS

In matters concerning student and faculty relations, the Student Government Association stands ready to promote better understanding and closer cooperation. The SGA is the voice of student opinion. It is always there to assist, often to counsel, sometimes to lead. The underlying philosophy of the SGA is the belief that students can effectively govern themselves, tempered by the knowledge and guidance of superiors, and work toward a democratic spirit and understanding of others.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Executive Council is composed of the four Student Government officers and the presidents of the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes. This council is the policy-making body and is also a hearing board for Student Government affairs. The Student Government Association Scholarships are awarded by this council, and plans for the annual formal dances, Freshmen orientation, and other activities are reviewed for approval here.

HONOR COUNCIL

It is the objective of the Honor Council to encourage active admission of the student's inherent ideals of honor and to remind him of his duty to maintain his honor in the classroom as well as in all phases of college activity. It is the purpose of the Council to protect the rights of the individual and to decide justice in cases where infractions of the Honor Code occur.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is the legislative and communicative branch of the Student Government Association. This Council is made up of one representative from each organization on campus. The weekly meetings are open to all students as an opportunity for voicing their opinions on school activities. Each representative is responsible to see that their organization lives up to the standards of Student Government and for keeping their organization informed of any news, announcements, or planned projects.

INTER-DORM COUNCIL

It is the duty of the Women's Inter-Dorm Council, through their various meetings, to provide the rules and regulations for the campus dormitories. Their purpose is to benefit dorm life in that it will be a harmonious one.

FOUNDERS HALL

The largest dormitory on campus naturally means more girls, more smiles, more fun, more tears, and more friends. The personality of each girl who lives here blends to form a new personality for Founders Hall every year. It has all the characteristics of one big happy family, well known for its unusual abundance of warmth and friendliness. The parties, television in the TV room, bridge in the card rooms, snowball battles in the front of the dorm, sunbathing on the roof, studying, laughing, crying—these experiences will long be remembered by the girls who have lived here.

Passing through the curtains which separate the relative tranquility of the parlor from the confusion in the maze of halls which constitute Lee House is reminiscent of Alice's venture through the looking-glass. Sounds ranging from stereophonic recording the "Beethoven's Fifth" to the beat of bongos; from the strident voice of a TV announcer to the familiar cry of "Anyone for bridge?"; these and many others mingle with the everyday noises that accompany dormitory life. Living in such a chaotic environment requires a high degree of adaptability, and Lee House boasts forty-one of the most adaptable girls on the campus.

RITTER-HICKOK DORMITORY

Built in 1855, Ritter-Hickok House is one of the historic buildings of Richmond, and a fine example of gracious living of the Victorian Period. The dormitory life of the girls is a great part of their education. At R.P.I. they have an opportunity to meet people from all walks of life.

When one compares this house with the adjoining modern Fine Arts Building, one sees that the span of years is immediately apparent. None-the-less, in the years the girls spend in the dormitory a feeling of being at home both in the 19th and 20th centuries develops comfortably.

MEREDITH HOUSE

Meredith House, the third largest dorm on campus, is known for its hospitality to all outsiders and for the friendliness among all its girls. Interests of the girls cover a wide range, but despite this they get along extremely well together. Meredith life is highlighted each year with its annual Christmas skit and a spring social. Meredith's foundations are cemented by the willingness of her students to co-operate and pitch in their services without being asked.

SCHERER HALL

It's Scherer Hall this year—but the ole' Berkley spirit is still uppermost with the seventy-five girls living here.

Our girls, represented in almost every social and scholastic activity on campus, will have many wonderful memories to come to mind with a quick backward glance at the year and all that it has held for them. The friendship, hours spent toward higher learning, and the good times will always remain in the hearts of every young lady at Scherer Hall.

To our housemother and graduating seniors—the best of everything . . . It's been a great year!

The Day Students' League was reorganized in November, 1959. At the February registration of R.P.I. there was a membership drive of the D.S.L. The purpose of the club is to have a voice in Student Government as a body and also be more united with the Dorm students and the administration.

One of the club's projects was the sponsorship of an informal dance in the Rotunda. Another was a panel discussion with the nominees for S.G.A. offices.

This has been a successful year in the organization of the D.S.L. and we are looking forward to a large membership and better year to come.

LEGS & LASSOS

A lot of musical numbers with a cast of thousands, and just a tiny bit of dialogue distributed throughout made up a successful Scholarship Show with a western atmosphere. Pretty girls, a gang of card-playing men, traditional "badmen," a bartender, a sheriff, a "Diamond Lil," an old-timer, a city slicker, a Spanish guitarist and dancer. These were all here, and very aptly directed by Charles Shockley and Walta Chandler. This is one of Theatre Associates' biggest yearly events.

Excitement in the dressing room almost equals the excited thrill on stage. Here's a peek.

ACCIDENTAL CLUB

Made up of music students, the Accidental Club at R.P.I. sponsors various musical activities on campus. This year the Mozart Trio and three jazz concerts were offered for entertainment. Bowling and a Christmas party were enjoyed by the club members. Plans are being made to have more well-known artists and jazz concerts on campus next year.

This organization for students in the School of Business reached a milestone during the year. Through the State and National organizations bearing the same name, Future Business Leaders of America changed the name of its college chapters to Phi Beta Lambda. Thus, Phi Beta Lambda becomes the first organization on the R.P.I. campus to bear a Greek-letter name. Activities of the R.P.I. Chapter of Phi Beta Lambda for the year include the publication of a printed, pocket-size STUDENT DIRECTORY, sponsoring the Christmas Card sale, the sponsorship of the drink concession at the Student Government Carnival, the sponsorship of the highly successful Slave Sale during the Scholarship Drive, having a series of prominent speakers for meetings, having several parties in connection with meetings, having the Fall Outing at Hanover Wayside, and having the Spring Outing at Kamp Kentwood.

The Westminster Fellowship meets twice weekly, Thursday nights on campus and Sunday evenings at Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church. This group is organized primarily to serve the Presbyterian students at R.P.I., although anyone who is interested in Christian fellowship is welcome to attend the meetings. At these meetings study and discussions on the various phases of the Christian life and how one can better meet the problems that face the Young Christian are presented. Other activities the group has enjoyed this year are picnics, trips to the Crippled Children's Hospital, and joint Thanksgiving services and Christmas caroling with the other religious groups on campus.

COTILLION CLUB

The main purpose of the Cotillion Club is to provide social activities for and create a spirit of fellowship among the women students at R.P.I. Among various other activities, the club sponsors a formal dance and several informal dances each year, and this year a beach week end was planned. The Cotillion Club offers opportunities not unlike those of a sorority—warm friendship, participation in campus activities, and group fellowship. The sponsor of the club this year was Mrs. Jane Bell Gladding, Dean of Women.

CHORUS

The chorus, under the direction of Wayne Batty, has sung at the various Convocations this year. In addition to this, they held their regular concerts.

The chorus is made up of music majors and any students on campus who desire to participate.

THE KIDS

"The Kids," an original script by Charles Best, was given a prior-to-Broadway production here through the cooperation of the Southeastern Theatre Conference. This story of Hungary's Freedom Fighters was intense and dramatic. It gave our actors an opportunity to test themselves in serious drama.

THEATRE

THE BOY FRIEND

"The Boy Friend," our annual musical comedy, "packed 'em in." When Sandy Wilson first wrote this spoof of the "Twittering Twenties" in England he thought it would have appeal for a small group of people. He was wrong. Audiences in London, New York and all over the United States have enjoyed its fun. R.P.I. gave it unprecedented acclaim.

TWELFTH NIGHT

"Twelfth Night" was a performance to be remembered at R.P.I. Each member of the cast gave an excellent portrayal of the Shakespearean comedy. The stage sets, along with the costumes, added to the medieval atmosphere, giving the audience a feeling of participation.

THE RECLINING FIGURE

"Reclining Figure" was especially appropriate for R.P.I., since it was concerned with art and art fakes. Written by Harry Kernitz, this witty comedy provided audiences with many laughs as well as something to think about.
